More than a location

Lighting, Sound, Production

The flexible spatial concept and up-to-date technical standards of the CPH leave no desires unfulfilled. As an event organiser, you'll have our comprehensive support in matters of stage equipment and event technology available to you, including modern show systems, effect lighting fixtures and much, much more. Whether it's an online ballot, a website presentation or a live-stream broadcast, the CPH's high-performance redundant network connection is up to the task. We are also happy to work with you to meet the demands of future trends and technologies, such as BYOD, for example!

Our technical experts are experienced in providing competent support and guarantee to meet your individual requirements reliably and economically. You may also avail yourself of your own technical equipment, if necessary.

The CPH disposes over a full-sized stage, sophisticated stage technology, an orchestra pit and acoustic sails for live-music performances, making it ideal for symphony concerts, musicals as well as show and theatre productions.

For events of every size and variety

The Congress Park Hanau (CPH) is much more than an event location. Featuring 10 conference rooms and five foyers spread out over 4,200 sq/m, the venue offers event planners every opportunity to hold successful and memorable events. From automotive presentations to scientific congresses, the CPH is equipped to host every type of function. One thing is absolutely certain: Your event will be unique from start to finish.

The venue's harmonic architectural blend of modern congress facility and historical annexe creates a unique atmosphere for congresses, conferences, fairs, exhibitions, banquets and cultural events. The former royal stables of Hanau's municipal palace have been integrated into the new congress building that is the CPH. Today, the location is home to one of the state's best concert halls.

Your event is in good hands

As an event organiser, you'll find the CPH's team of industry professionals to be very committed, highly flexible and absolutely service-oriented, while also disposing over excellent technical know-how. Your event will be in good hands from the very first minute to the very last. Here at the CPH, we follow the 1:1 principle: You'll always have one specific individual assigned to you to personally manage your event and ensure that all of your wishes come true.

Everything according to your taste

Our venue is also home to an excellent restaurant serving finest regional cuisine. The adjacent Bavarian-style beer garden offers seating for close to 500 persons. Event organisers may choose from a number of other catering partners if so desired, their culinary creations ranging from rustic to elegant.

Sustainable, ecological and social

A number of social, ecological and economic aspects have been integrated into the operational processes of our event venue. The CPH has been awarded the "Green Globe" certification consistently since 2010, as based on Agenda 21. By holding your event with us, you'll be automatically observing various ecological aspects while adhering to international sustainability guidelines. What's more, you may also decide to have your event be entirely climate-neutral. We are happy to advise and assist you in any and all of these important aspects.
